Yesterday we attended the launch of the NSW State Governments Housing Pattern Book a new initiative making it easier, faster and more affordable to build quality homes across the state. The initiative aims to: Cut though the red tape Fast-track development approvals Empower homeowners and developers to build with confidence Use materials that suit local environments and promote biodiversity For just $1 for the next 6 months, homeowners and developers can access the eight world-class architect-designed patterns for low-rise dwellings that can get projects from application to construction in as little as one week. We know the development of affordable and accessible housing is a major issue confronting many parts of our country, and our hope is that the Pattern Book makes a difference to the faster delivery of low and mid-rise housing solutions.You can take a look at the Pattern Book designs and find out more about the architects who designed them here: Chris Minns Paul Scully Government Architect NSW NSW Department of Planning, Housing and Infrastructure 159,192 followers 3d Weve wrapped up our first ever funding round of the Bunnings Green Shoots Program and are delighted with the results. Weve proudly delivered $135,000 in grants to 12 greenlife suppliers across VIC, NSW, QLD and WA through targeted Crisis Relief and Capability Building support.Launched earlier this year, the program will see us invest $1 million in grants over five years to support our greenlife suppliers for business development services and financial relief during times of crisis.The response from our growers, team and the broader industry has been fantastic and we thank everyone who applied and has helped bring this meaningful program to life.Special thanks also to James McTavish CSC, PSM, ESM and Jodie Trembath PhD for their work on the Fund Review Committee, and to the Australian Institute of Management whos delivering training to our Capability Building grant recipients.And theres more to come Round 2 of the program opens in August, so stay tuned for updates! 159,192 followers 4d Edited For the second year, Bunnings Trade is proud to support TIACS with the launch of a new, limited-edition Bunnings Trade x TIACS hoodie available at all Bunnings stores across Australia.TIACS is the home of Blue-Collar Counselling, a not-for-profit that provides free and professional mental health counselling support to tradies and their loved ones.From Friday, 25 Julywe will be selling Bunnings Trade x TIACS hoodies for $59 each and all profits raised will go directly towards the important work TIACS do supporting the mental health of Australia's tradies.Head to any Bunnings store across Australia on Friday 25 July for the National TIACS Trade Brekkie BBQ to launch the Bunnings Trade x TIACS hoodie and support tradies mental health. 159,192 followers 1w This NAIDOC Week, were celebrating the voices of First Nations peoples within our team and communities.Here, Kara, a proud Jawoyn/ Wiradjuriwoman and Bunnings Regional Manager, and Max, an emerging leader and Yidinji man, reflect on what NAIDOC Week means to them.Through our dedicated Indigenous employment and leadership development programs, and strong community partnerships, were committed to creating opportunities where Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander team members can thrive, contribute, and lead.#NAIDOC2025 159,192 followers 1w Our Tech teams brought their A-game last week as they hosted annual Tech Carnivalat our National Store Support Centre in Burnley, Vic.
